101 Things For Kids To Do Outside

Synopsis

Let them go outside and play! More parents are heeding the advice of specialists who urge them to do just that. By playing outside with friends, kids learn valuable interpersonal and negotiation skills and how to make decisions. Outdoor play teaches about the natural world, fosters creativity, and encourages physical activity. 101 Things For Kids To Do Outside is ideal for parents, teachers, and all those working with youth. This book is ideal for the children who like gaming, TV, movies, the soft couch, and even too many snacks. The kids who believe "there's nothing to do outside" can learn and be encouraged to experience the joy of outdoor play. Each activity is described in language easy for a 6- to 9-year-old and illustrated with engaging graphics. Younger children may need direction, at least the first time. Large pictures display all the fun to be had. The activities range from 10 minutes to hours and hours of fun. Some require creativity, make-believe or physical exertion but they are all outside. Perfect for rainy days, sunshiny days, even snowy days. Examples of the 101 activities are: Weave a bird's nest Set up a potion lab Make nature rubbings Build a crawl tunnel Hold a mini Olympics Build a human sundial Make a nature walk bracelet Capture animal tracks Fly a homemade kite Make a rain gauge Make a snow maze.

Wonderful resource. Even if my kids don't wanna do some of these things, I do! Well written and organized. Let's you know in a separate box what you need for each project. Also in the back it is broken down into age groups for different activities :) would be a great gift :)

Disclaimer: I was sent a review copy of this book. The review copy was provided for my blog, with no requests that I review here. All opinions are my own. I love this book, and so do my kids - as evidenced by the number of Wrapables Bookmark Flag Tab Sticky Notes, Black Cat, Set of 2 marking activities they want to try! The book is full of original, creative ideas that will keep your kids busy learning, creative, and having fun outdoors. The photographs inside are beautiful - very inspiring. This is a great book to add to your home library!

Okay, I'm entranced and inspired. This is a great book for all season activities to do with kids. There are lots of games for kids to play requiring no more than a blanket (Sky Spy), a foam ball (Crack up), or chalk (Cross step). The activities are interesting enough for an adult to want to do alone: Make a rain gauge from a plastic bottle, Watch worms work, Make a weather vane. Kids (and you) will learn something from each two-page activity supplemented with photographs and illustrations. Each time you browse this book, you will find something new and fun. Oh, and it gets you and the kids outside and not behind a computer or television screen! Highly recommended!

What a great book! I just received this as a gift and I loved it so much I just ordered one and sent it to a friend. From kids to adults this book is FULL of fun ideas. Looking forward to making new memories with my family.

Great book full of wonderful ideas to get kids outside! We love the inspiring photos and that there are so many fun group game ideas and snow play ideas!
