Synopsis

Professor Abdur Rahimâ™s eight-volume texts enable the student to acquire a knowledge of Arabic in the classical structural form. All of the books teach essential language skills through applied grammar. Each lesson is based on a conversation which illustrates distinctive language patterns. A variety of exercises helps the student to understand and master each of the patterns occurring in the lesson. The vocabulary ranges from classical and Quranic Arabic to words and expressions current in modern Arabic. This series of books is currently being utilized at various schools to prepare students for the University of London (UK) GCE O-Level and A-Level examinations.

Customer Reviews

The first third is a good basic review, since it's been a few years since my last Arabic class and I'm not as fluent as I used to be. Except... then it seems to magnify in difficulty by several orders of magnitude. There's a hole in there, and I just can't make it past that point without getting thoroughly confused. Because of this, I'm still searching for my old paper Iqra Arabic readers. I'd like to regain my fluency, I'm not in touch with my ex-husband's family, but I'd really like to improve my Arabic to better communicate with the parents of 3 of my clients, and it never hurts to know more languages.

It is good book to learn Arabic specially Quranic Arabic.

Excellent .. I can't wait to complete the series
