Biblical Resources For Ministry: A Bibliography Of Works In Biblical Studies

Synopsis

Created with students and pastors in mind, Biblical Resources for Ministry is a selective listing of the most useful and significant works in the field of biblical studies compiled by a leading evangelical biblical scholar. Bauer's stated purpose is to include those works which are most useful in the exegetical process. BRM contains bibliographic listings for 1,500 titles by 900 authors. The book is topically arranged with a table of contents with over 100 subject areas and an index of authors. Save time and money when doing research in biblical studies or when building a library for pastoral ministry.

Customer Reviews

Dr. David Bauer does a wonderful job in presenting a handbook of resources for biblical literature. These resources and analyses include textual studies, commentaries, grammars, biblical software, and other resources. This book is a must for anyone doing serious biblical studies, but it is also a great tool for beginners.
