The Don's Baby: A Bad Boy Romance

Synopsis

THE BABY CHANGED EVERYTHING. I was poised to inherit the Orsini mafia family's fortune, ready to take over, rule hard, and die young. Then my father arranged a marriage between me and the daughter of a rival don. A sham to keep the peace. A sham that I wanted nothing to do with. Until I saw my bride. Tasted her fiery temper. And put a baby in her belly. But when the old man's peace starts dying and the other families put a target on her back, I'll do whatever it takes to keep her safe. Even if I have to lash her to the bed. To hold her close and NEVER let go. The Don's Baby is a full-length, standalone romance novel with steamy hot sex, NO CHEATING, strong language, a happily ever after ending and NO CLIFFHANGERS. Contains dark and disturbing themes, and over the top sexiness that may be uncomfortable for some readers. Perfect for fans of Joanna Blake, Alexa Riley, Devon Hartford, Sabrina Paige, Winter Renshaw, Vanessa Waltz, Emilia Kincade and Melanie Harlow

Customer Reviews

So this book ends at 56%, but it's still a long book. I loved the love story. The emotions were real. What I hated? What made me want to pull my hair out, scream, and DNF? The incessant inner dialogue. O. M. G. The internal thoughts were rampant with paranoid hypotheses. Here's an example of what I mean- I'm making this up to illustrate. If Marcelo leaves a knife on the counter top, Sophie would wonder: "He left me a knife. Why? Did he want me to use it on myself? To kill myself? On him? To kill him? Did he like the design of it? Did he know how perfectly it fit into my hand? What if it were to fall on the floor and stab my foot? What if he just want me to make a peanut butter and jelly sandwich? Did he like those sandwiches? Did he want me instead to make a roast beef so that I used the knife on it?" It was so annoying. More than half of their problems were born and bred in their heads. Pages and pages and pages. I want interaction between them! UGH!! What I also disliked was a scene would happen, and a few pages later, it would summarize what I'd just read- which I had painstakingly barely got through because of the internal thoughts boredom. Grrr! There were several parts that annoyed me. "Marcelo was the only and oldest son"- what? He was either the only son or he was the oldest son- he cannot be both. Did he have siblings or not?! Then SPOILER after her dad dies, both question whether their legally executed marriage was valid since her father died, who had been one of the two who'd forced them to marry (the other being his father). Really?! I had to sit there and read through this stupidity. Maybe they meant whether they were still married in the Mafia world- but in the real world, you're still married guys. Ugh.
