Erun (Scifi Alien Romance) (The Ujal Book 4)

Synopsis

Heâ™s an Ujal who knows heâ™ll never have a mate. Sheâ™s a human who doesnâ™t want to take another chance on love. One small child doesnâ™t give them a choice. With her toddler in tow, Vanessa Walker travels to Tampa, Florida to begin her new job at Ujal Station Tau. Then problems ariseâ”her daughter is ill, and a sexy, demanding, overwhelming, purple-scaled Ujal is determined to do whatever he can to save Tabitha. When they realize Tabby isnâ™t ill, sheâ™s Ujal, plenty of people donâ™t want Vanessa raising her newly tail-sporting alien daughter. Ujal royalty may support her, but only one personâ”one Ujal maleâ”makes her feel safe: Erun fa Arex. Erun fa Arex earned his position through blood, sweat, and scales with a trident as his constant companion. On Earth, he is the captain of the principessaâ™s elite guard, a worthy Ujal warrior matched by few. On Ujal, he grew up as a child slave forced to fight for sport and othersâ™ pleasure. Fighting left physical and mental scars while the masterâ™s growth-hormone injections left him unable to father younglings. Erun never considered mating and having a family of his own until he meets Vanessa and Tabitha. Now he realizes everything he rejectedâ”a mate and familyâ”is exactly what he desires. And he will fight to keep themâ”to the death. Part of the UJAL series: Vados Tave Rhal The Ujal Volume One (Vados, Tave, Rhal) Erun Dashing Through the Stars

Customer Reviews

I have read all of the other books in the series, and I think Erun is the best of the group. It can be read as a standalone, but reading Rhal first might help with understanding the backstory. This is the story of Erun, Vanessa, and Tabitha. Erun is captain of the guard, and, like others in this series, had an abusive childhood. Because of the treatment when he was young, he cannot mate and have children and is very lonely. Vanessa is best friends with Rina, and is moving from Arizona to take a PR job at the Ujal station. She is a widow with an adopted daughter, Tabitha. Tabitha is a happy, energetic toddler with a tendency to run blindly after whatever she is chasing. Unlike most books of this sci-fi romance genre, Tabitha is a central character in this story. Things I liked about this story. The hero and heroine were older than the other books and more mature. They could admit to mistakes, knew what they wanted and weren't afraid to try. They talk and listen to each other. So the story line does not revolve around miscommunication and angst. Erun deals with his ignorance about children and problems from his childhood quickly and intelligently. He asks for help, and apologizes when he finds out he was wrong. Vanessa behaves similarly. No insta-pregnancy, but a clear acceptance of options. This was particularly nice with the hero. Culturally, there is no adoption for Ujals. Unwanted children are sold or discarded, never adopted. However, once Erun saw the advantages, he was all for saving and raising the heroine's child and other children. I liked that Tabitha did not just appear and disappear when convenient. She was a major character in the plot and story line which added a nice dimension to the book.

Received a copy from the author in exchange for an honest review. 3.5 So until a few weeks ago I didn't know that Celia Kyle also wrote alien romances under another pen name. I had checked out the Volume One in the Ujal series but I wasn't sure I wanted to spend the 4.99 when all three books included are really short (42 to 84 pages). So then today I received the email offering the free copy of Erun and I jumped on it. I loved Erun, Vanessa and Tabby. LOVED them. Erun our abused Alpha alien, Vanessa the single mother just trying to get through the day as best she can while dealing with an uptight alien who thinks he knows better and Tabby, the terrible toddler you can't help but love. There is a lot that goes on in this book, but it kept the pace fast and made for a really fun read. This is the longest book in the series so far and that made for a more drawn out love story which I appreciated. I get tired of insta-love and like to see some characters have to work for it. Now there are some series you have to read in order to understand the world and others you can pop in and out of based on the desire to read about a certain couple. I'm not sure where this falls. I felt like I was missing a lot of world type info. Other than knowing the Ujal came from another planet to clean our oceans before they died completely, and their home planet was over crowded and politically corrupt I'm left pretty clueless. There are hover craft so what year is it? I know they're alien water type creatures but am I right when I think mermen? Do they have cities underwater or just homes? And what would be considered an underwater home? I also don't fully understand how a human can "transition" from human to Ujal.
