Every section fleshes out one type of summons - from the various near world fallen dimensions (shadow / underworld (!!!) / astral); the Abyss (where we learn the distinctions between the Acamoth, which are Abyssal creatures trapped here, and the Gulmoth who are Abyssal natives) the Supernal (commonly credited as being the coolest section of the book, it shows how Mages can pursue power and hidden wisdom through the trials of this path. Do not fear, though, definitive setting answers about the nature of the Supernal, Oracles, &c are not given) and the crazy stuff which is outside other definitions (a grab bag of random stuff, most pretty cool. It's nice to see them shake up the world a little bit, just to make sure people don't think they've got it all figured out).
