Customer Reviews

There is nothing, unfortunately, that I can recommend about this book. The writing is syrupy, the editing is atrocious, and the characters are trite. Luckily it's also short so little time was wasted reading it.

Expect better writing from a creative writing assignment for a 7th grader. Lousy editing, tedious premise, and poor understanding of religions. Too long for short story but short for an adult book. Would not recommend for anyone with an IQ.

Quick and light, The Puzzle is an enjoyable short story with many components: believable characters, murder, mystery, love, jealousy, reincarnation and a great twist ending!

My interest was held from start to finish. There are so many unexpected twists and turns in the story! Inspiring!
