Games People Play: A Gritty Gripping Scottish Crime Thriller (Charlie Cameron Series Book 1)

Synopsis

On a warm summer's evening thirteen month old Lily Hamilton is abducted from Ayr beach in Scotland, taken while her parents are yards away. Three days later, the distraught father turns up at Glasgow PI Charlie Cameron's office and begs him to help. Mark Hamilton believes he knows who has stolen his daughter. And why. Against his better judgement Charlie gets involved in a case he would be better off without. But when a child's body is discovered on Fenwick Moor, then another in St Andrews, the awful truth dawns: there is a serial killer out there whose work has gone undetected for decades. Baby Lily may be the latest victim of a madman. For Charlie it's too late, he can't let go. His demons won't let him. The stunning first novel featuring Glasgow PI Charlie Cameron. Games People Play will have the reader guessing to the very last page.

Games People Play (Charlie Cameron #1) by Owen Mullen (Goodreads Author) Hello, my dear followers and friends, today I'm writing the first time about a mystery or crime novel in Scotland :D I know! You will love it :) In the first two pages you get a glimpse of the intriguing, fast-paced and well-written mystery crime thriller. There are footsteps. A man is running away. Whom he runs away? You pick up the story fast because the novel is precisely the definition of an engrossing story! Ayr, 35 miles from Glasgow A pair with a child are on the beach. It is a sunshine day. Mark, the husband, with the push up-chair and Lily, his daughter, are waiting for Jennifer, who is the wife of Mark. Jennifer went swimming 10 past 7 and everything seems ok until... a current is dragging her to the bottom. She tries to swim to the surface. She thinks she succeeds, however the force throws her to the sea ground... She stays under... She is going to drown. Suddenly Mark notices something wrong. He gets Jennifer out of the water and begins the necessary emergency operations. Jennifer survives. However, where is Lily? The first client of Charlie Cameron consists of a snooty father called Bill Mulholland, who is used to look down upon people in general and his missing teenage daughter. Charlie finds her 72 hours later in a messy caravan in Dunoon where her "friend" Fraser films Maryanne Mulholland for a sex video. Both are doped and in this scene, it is revealed that even though Charlie can have a hard core, he is fair and has a soft core. He knows that Maryanne is tyrannized by his father.
